

ISSUE 46: Hot Cuts Process

AT&T excepts to the HEPO's decision to require CLECs to decide within 30 minutes of a failed DT/ANI test whether or not the due date should be rescheduled. AT&T Exc. at 37. According to AT&T, the 30 minute timeframe only makes sense if Ameritech Illinois performs the DT/ANI testing on the due date, rather than DD-2. Id. at 38. While Ameritech Illinois excepts to certain aspects of the HEPO's decision, Ameritech Illinois does agree with AT&T's position concerning the 30 minute timeframe. Am. Ill. Exc. at 27-29. In this respect, AT&T and Ameritech Illinois both seek to correct the HEPO in the same manner, and both continue to negotiate details satisfactory to both parties.
